Standard Information Brief on EIDL Program

Economic Injury Disaster Loans

Economic Injury Disaster Loans

If your small business is in a declared disaster area and has suffered substantial economic injury, you may be eligible for an EIDL.

Substantial economic injury means the business is unable to meet its obligations and to pay its ordinary and necessary operating expenses.

EIDLs provide the necessary working capital to help small businesses until normal operations resume.

Coronavirus (COVID-19)

The U.S. Small Business Administration's (SBA) low-interest Economic Injury Disaster Loans (EIDLs) are now available to small businesses, small agricultural cooperatives, small aquaculture businesses and private nonprofit organizations affected by the loss of revenue due to the Coronavirus.

SBA Administrator Jovita Carranza made the loans available in response COVID-19.

EIDL Eligibility

Determining eligibility for an EIDL begins with a four-part test:

- Location
- Business Activity
- Size
- Independently Owned and Operated Business

Economic Injury Disaster Loans

Location

- The applicant business must have a physical presence in the declared disaster area.
- An applicant's economic presence alone in a declared area does not meet this requirement.
- The physical presence must be tangible & significant. Merely having a P.O. Box in the disaster area would not qualify as a physical presence.

Economic Injury Disaster Loans

Business Activity

- Primary Activity - The primary industry of the applicant & its affiliated group must be an otherwise eligible activity for the applicant to be eligible, regardless of the nature of the loss activity. (Primary activity based on revenues the year preceding the disaster)
- Loss Activity – The activity for which the loss is being claimed must be eligible.

Economic Injury Disaster Loans

Size

- The size of the applicant alone (without affiliates) must not exceed the size standard for the industry in which the applicant is primarily engaged; and
- The applicant combined with its affiliates must not exceed the size standard for either the primary activity of the applicant alone or the primary industry of the applicant and its affiliates, whichever is higher.

Economic Injury Disaster Loans

Independently Owned and Operated

- Substantial business risk – The principals must have a business risk resulting from investing in facilities and equipment and by incurring ongoing expenses, which must be paid regardless of whether the operation generates a profit (example: a crew member on a fishing boat would not be eligible).
- Free from significant control – The applicant business must be free from significant control by other concerns (e.g., the customers or businesses that pay for its services).
- Effect of IRS Guidelines – Merely filing a Schedule C with the Federal Tax Return does not qualify the individual as an independently owned and operated business.
